

ČARODĚJNICE

A Halloween-themed background illustration featuring a large, full yellow moon in a dark sky. In the foreground, there are silhouettes of a spooky house with multiple windows, some of which are lit from within. A large, gnarled tree stands in the center, with a witch flying on a broomstick above it. Other smaller silhouettes include a bat and a figure in a hooded cloak. The overall color palette is dominated by dark blues, blacks, and the bright yellow of the moon.
